

Is It Love Blue Swan Hospital Hacks

Is It Love Blue Swan Hospital Hacks

CLICK HERE TO ACCESS IS IT LOVE BLUE SWAN HOSPITAL GENERATOR

Blue Swan | Is it Love? You're a first-year resident in the emergency room of one of the most prestigious hospitals on the West Coast, the Blue Swan. You know this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity and you can't screw it up. Being part of the Swans is any young doctor's dream come true. As an aspiring doctor, you are... Blue Swan. You're a first-year resident in the emergency room of one of the most prestigious hospitals on the West Coast, the Blue Swan.

is it love blue swan hospital hack

cheats for is it love blue swan hospital is it love blue swan hospital free coins hack but no surveys is it love blue swan hospital daily free coins link

You know this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity and you can't screw it up. Being part of the Swans is any young doctor's dream come true. As an aspiring doctor, you are prepared to deal with life-or-death consequences on a daily basis. Or are you? It's going to be tough, your nerves will be wrecked and your supervisor will not make life easy for you. But you'll meet friendly colleagues, each one with a different story and calling, with whom to build strong relationships.

And you may even find love. It's up to you to make the right choices. Contents. Gameplay Mechanics. This game is based on the romantic fanfiction focusing on the male love interests as the main characters were usually females involving their current job in Blue Swan as the first-year resident.

how do i get free coins in is it love blue swan hospital

no human verification hack for is it love blue swan hospital

The actual gameplay is to choose two answers similar to the multiple choices of A and B depending on the player's choices to react on their respective main love interests especially during their intimate scenes and the rest of the supporting characters was either a friend or an enemy. In this game, it introduced the time limit where it shows a time limiter when the player has to choose the two answers during her crucial involvement in the surgery of their patients or confronting Chuck Stanford and Max Foster at the final chapter while it was flashing red in the background screen. The player needs to choose the two answers wisely before the time runs out.

The secret scenes are replaced with special scenes where the player takes control on the player's main love interests (William, Mike, and Jarod) within their point of views of getting interested in the player who now shows her real appearance. In order to continue the entire story's narration, they use energy potions. But once it was emptied, the players need to wait for more than hours to gather the energy potions or obtaining additional 30pcs by watching their video ads. However, buying the energy potions and the secret scenes also cost at a higher price as the player wanted to unlock the secret scenes for free with the use of codes.

Season 1. The player is a newcomer who lived in New York and moved in Los Angeles, California to work at Blue Swan Hospital as a first-year resident on her first day of the job. She meets Adrian Walker before witnessing the children including Mr. Roberts arrived for treatment and meets Ross Bubble" Bergman who introduces William Sheffield to her. She also meets Camilla Cresset who was her supervisor to tour her around the hospital to meet their chief resident Mai Lan Dinh.

free coins codes is it love blue swan hospital

The player begins to annoy Camilla due to her horrible management as well as letting her not to do anything during the surgery. She also meets Jarod Harding along the way who also operates Mr. Roberts in Camilla's assistance. The player became tense to see the operation which resulted in her to trip into Jarod. Camilla angrily scolds the player from getting tense as she realized that she ordered not to do anything was trying to make her out of place.

As soon as she avoids Camilla for her horrible management, she was helped by Mike Stover who stutters her during their first meeting to use the tablet in the hospital before backing away. At the cafeteria, while encountering her best friend Sofia Flores, both encountered both William and Adrian as they talked about the removal of several surgeons and the performance of both the player and Mike and William seems interested to the player while trying to describe her. After the break, Camilla orders the player to check on Mr.

Roberts but she comes across Jimmy Bloom after treating his injured head and needs to check his head on the MRI. Upon visiting Mr. Roberts after being protected by Camilla from her mistreatment, he blames himself for killing several children in the accident as she tries to calm him down.

is it love blue swan hospital free coins a2z help

free coins is it love blue swan hospital blogspot is it love blue swan hospital hack no download

As soon as she returned to Jimmy's ward after checking his head on the MRI, she was horribly shocked to see him getting revived by the doctors until he was declared dead on arrival after succumbing to his head injury. Jimmy's parents were devastated after the loss of their son which makes the player ran away in sadness as she cried remorsefully inside the locker room because of Jimmy's death only to be comforted by Mike.

Despite Mike's remarks about being sympathetic the dying patient or other medical staff would see her deeply emotional on other patients who were in near-death, the player angrily slaps him in the face, displaying her emotional outbursts while blaming herself over Jimmy's loss. Despite their altercation, they were visited by both William and Camilla, asking them to join them at the bar which Mike agrees to join with the two, much to her horrible shock. At the bar, Mike orders the player some cocktails as they encounter Jarod who also went to the bar to relieve his stress.

As Jarod leaves with his employees, she bumped into William who carries some beers to fellow employees then returns to Mike. She noticed that Mike drunk her cocktail while she does the same by drinking the strong one while immediately orders some Pina Colada for him. As they leave the bar and went back to the locker room of the hospital, the player manages to get her things but only to be cornered by Mike who is now beginning to have a sexual relationship with the player.

After he stripped off her clothes that leaves her in panties but on topless, she was aware if somebody sees them in the locker room to do 'that' which stops Mike from doing so, much to the latter's displeasure. The next day, she saw a homeless man named Simon Bateman who had serious injuries while meeting up with Sofia and later Bubbles who informed her to keep away from strangers until Camilla showed up behind her. During the time when she wanted to help the patients, Camilla puts her out of place for the second time which causes the player to angrily walks out due to her horrible management.

She meets Mike while waiting at Mai Lan's office who also showed up to see her after having an important phone call. She also informs the player that Camilla complains about her which leads her to inform her about her horrible management as her supervisor. As soon as Mai Lan goes through the elevator, Mike tells her that she shouldn't treat her colleagues properly. But also berating her for what they did last night before he backs away in delight much to the player's irritation.

Upon getting out of the hospital to cool her off, she saw Simon was unconscious as his serious wounds are getting worse because of infections, she decides to treat its wounds immediately until encountering Jarod who assists a serious injured Tatiana with the help from Mary who begs him to save her. The player decides to help Jarod treats Tatiana's serious injuries due to the motorcycle accident. In the meantime, Jarod informs the player to go to Camilla where Daniela remains confined due to her kidney failure and threatens if he was her supervisor, he would give her a warning note. She then went to Camilla to see Daniela.

As she leaves, the player manages to ask Daniela the cause of her kidney failure after she had her first kidney transplant which it failed to function. Daniela admitted that she had swallowed a bottle of weight-loss pills containing parmabor a few times a day. The player finally learns that the actual ingredients of the weight-loss pills caused her to damage her kidneys until Camilla showed up to overhear their conversations.

Daniela finally breaks down after learning that the pills she had drunk caused her to damage her new kidneys from her first transplant and the real reason she wanted to lose her weight because she became overweight at 19 years of age and ended up getting damaged herself. After she briefly watched the operation Jarod takes on Tatiana's injured leg with William's assistance despite he pressures him for the help, the player slips away to see Simon to treat his serious leg wound until Camilla immediately calls her back to duty. Despite being berated by Mike, she arrives at Daniela's room and to her discovery, Daniela attempts to commit suicide by drug overdose and became comatose.

She was reluctant to team up with Camilla to revive her which they succeed. As Camilla distracts Daniela's parents along with Mai Lan, Daniela finally awakens and she wants to talk to the player instead of her. She then explains to her about her love life and how she suffers from insomnia. Afterwards, Mai Lan allows her to have a break.

She later became reluctant to have lunch with Sofia and Bubble and to her surprise that it was Sofia who saw both her and Mike were making out in the ER changing room and wants to investigate the whole situation. By the time, she treats Simon's wounds and to her discovery that he uses a screwdriver to further deepens his leg wound causing her to kick it away but was attacked by Simon due to his drug influence, seeing him as a drug addict. The player learns about Bubble's warning as she was knifepoint by Simon.

The ordeal was soon found by William as the player warns him about Simon. She manages to kick him long enough for William to hold him off, making Simon cry for his actions. She and William informed him that using drugs or painkillers are not gonna help him which makes him leave in shame as Will takes her inside the hospital after the incident. The player finally tells William the truth which he tells her not to blame herself for the trouble especially treating other people outside would have ended her career by stripping off the license. William then helps her until Camilla intervene, allowing William to deal with her while he helping her to take her to the break room.

Mike then berates the player for her mistakes which led an intense standoff between William and Mike. Afterwards, William takes the player to the karate dojo before he parted ways with her. There, she encounters Jarod inside the dojo practicing his karate moves and the arrival of Master Onizuka which is Jarod's Japanese sensei leading to the player's decision to become his pupil and wanted to refine her karate skills in the past which he agreed to retrained her.

The next day despite her body gained sore muscles after her heavy training, she went to the hospital to check up on the elderly couple of both Mr. and Mrs. Manny who was disgusted on Camilla's actions and to her surprise that more patients are coming their way because of the incident in the Super Bowl. She also thinks between both William and Jarod while she was talking to Bubble before Sofia arrives. Afterward, she witnessed both William and Mike had an heated argument because of his cold and grinning attitude and later being blamed by Mr.

Roberts in Jimmy's death which she manages to ease him long enough for him to be taken to the psychiatrist. Mai Lan later compliments for her good deeds and she has no disciplinary action after Mr. Roberts filed a complaint against her. She advices her to talk to Mike despite his behavior. At the time of Valentine's Day, both the player and Sofia looked at Camilla's change of behavior which is probably after Jimmy's death and the player was blame for it.

As the player leaves to the emergency room, she was given a single rose by William as well as other female employees as her yellow rose has red accents in it which signifies her as his special someone. After treating other patients, she spends time with Sofia at the Venice beach which later cause a tension between the two and Sofia had left. The player blames herself for her actions until she receives an anonymous call from her secret admirer who threatens her as the player easily found out that it was Chuck Stanford, his abusive ex-boyfriend. She later send a text message to Sofia regarding about Chuck.

The next day, she was warmly welcomed by Adrian and later to check upon the Paz couple while encountering both Camilla and Jarod. Despite Camilla's pressure on her she buys lunch at the cafeteria and goes with both Sofia and Bubble who enjoys gossips. After work, she later spends time with Sofia at home as she reveals to the player that she was in contact with Raquel and her ex-boyfriend Juan and the player was worried because she might be dragged into their troubles. The next morning, Camilla takes her to the psychiatrist office and meets Andrea Steinmann regarding about her behavior with Mr. Roberts.

As soon as both Camilla and Andrea leave, Olivia and the other nurses are gossiping about them and they knew that Andrea was a lesbian who is married with another woman causing the player to shut them up. Arriving at Mai Lan's office, her complaint with Mr. Roberts had reached it's breaking point that causes to risk the player's job on purpose. But Mai Lan instead gives her an advice that she has to act similarly to Mike if she wanted to keep her job at the hospital. During the break, she along with Bubble and Sofia are having lunch at MacArthur's park.

While gossiping about other people or the player's love life. This is where the player tells them about Chuck's threatening message after she receives a text message from her younger brother Tyler. Both of them decided to stand up for the player if Chuck would do something bad to her and the player tells them that Chuck is a lawyer. Back at the hospital, Mike treats Lexie Johnson's arm and being watched by William.

He also sees the player who decided to see William at the cafeteria after Sofia asked her to follow him. At the cafeteria, this is where she observes the player is talking to William, thanking him for the roses and admiring his expertise in metal sculpturing as he shows his metal sun sculpture. She soon learns that William had a fiancée named Eve Wilson after mentioning her father Anthony Wilson, a retired metal worker. The player decided to make an excuse for William and leave, but was bumped into Mike.

She proceeds to go to the locker room and was broken up about William getting married as Mike follows her on the way. He tells her that she shouldn't be broken up about small things. As the two continued talking about William, both were caught off by Sofia, much to her horror. Knowingly that Sofia had already known that it was the player all along who nearly had sex with Mike at the locker room while in their tipsy state.

This causes a massive fall out between the player and Sofia as both are inside the shower room to confront each other. Mike tries to speak to Sofia about what happened but she told him to get out of the room which he left. Sofia realizes what the player had done for making her a fool since she keeps it to herself. The player tried to reason with Sofia about what happened and she wanted to say this to her.

Because of her cowardice, Sofia decided to break their friendship as she angrily stomps away, leaving the player behind. The player becomes disheartened for her actions as she runs back to the locker room while looking at Mike and proceeds to get inside the dormitory and breaking her tears for letting William and Sofia down. Because of what happened, Mike follows her at the dormitory and he sincerely apologizes to the player, stating that she was the one telling the truth and Sofia had been watching them for the entire time.

The player also apologizes as well. Since Mike's tablet beeps because of his patient, he let the player go to Room 16 to see the patient, as a token of apology for what happened between them. Despite the player's stubbornness, Mike scolds her and he drags the player out and happily orders her to go to Room 16, which she did and realizing that Mike had already befriended her. When she is about to enter Room 16, she encounters Jarod who asks her about this room being confined by Mike's patient which she confirms and Jarod gave her some advice before walking away.

Upon entering Room 16, she meets Lexie and her mother Mrs. Johnson. As she treats a disinfectant solution on her grazed elbow, William visits them and asking about why she was there and it should be Mike. The player informs him that it was Mike who told her to handle his patient today.

As William happily leaves, she now treats Lexie her injured arm as she reveals that she was left behind by her best friend Mindy and her friends and when she tried to follow them on the road, she rides a bike in a steep path which results her to injure her arm when she fall on her bike and she was found by Mr. Willford as stated by her mother Mrs. Johnson. Her story is a reference as how her and Sofia had recently broken their friendship earlier. After treating Lexie's injured arm, she leaves the room and was encountered by William.

She asks him if he is all right which he confirms until she receives a beep call from Camilla at her tablet. Meeting Camilla at the pharmacy, she informs her about the major inconsistencies of the stock of medicine which surprises the player especially she learns that Sofia had witnessed the ordeal. Camilla also tells her that it was done by the dangerous gang involving drug trafficking and the player knew it was one of the members of Boyle 13. As she try to defend Sofia from getting involved, Camilla noticed she treats Mike's patients as she confirms.

She scolds her not to switch places as she and William can do that as a two-year resident as well as she asked if she is better supervisor which the player answers yes since she does not talk to William because of his engagement with Eve. Camilla leaves after she tells the player that she will be investigated as well involving the inconsistencies of the medicine stocks. The player then goes to the third floor to visit Mrs.

Addington who follows up of her check up results on her acute pancreatis. Once she reaches at the elevator, Jarod passes by. While inside the elevator, Jarod asks the player if she was okay which she confirms until a thunder strike causes a blackout and both were stuck inside the elevator much to the player's panic as she grabs his arm. Jarod was relieved that the back-up generators are powering up the hospital but getting annoyed that the elevator is still not moving.

He picks up a butterfly pocket knife on his pocket to fix the wires on the elevator panel and this is how both him and the player are having a conversation regarding about Master Onizuka's karate lessons and how Jarod joined karate when he was younger. Jarod also reveals his past memories of bringing the package until being trained and given advice by Master Onizuka. He also reveals of wanting to go to Tanzania because he and Adrian are long time friends and became seriously concern about the player when he read the her text messages from her phone which comes from her ex-boyfriend Chuck and she never told him that it was really him who sent it.

As soon as Jarod fixes the wires from the elevator panel, the elevator becomes operational and both soon parted ways when they reach the third floor. The player became upset when Jarod is talking to Mary on his phone. After checking on Mrs. Addington who angrily complains about not watching the Oscars due to blackouts, she went back to the locker room and meet Mike.

Since she decided not to get back to her apartment with Sofia since their fall out, Mike decided to let her stay at his apartment and also reveals that he's pretty good on making drinks aside from drinking at the Great Pretender. The player gladly accepts Mike's invitation, much to his happiness as he leaves to wait for her to finish dressing up her clothes. Arriving at Mike's studio apartment, she learns that Mike is good in mixing drinks. While drinking, Mike finally opens up about how he learned to mix drinks from one of his friends which is a bartender as well as being anti-social of not trying to socialize anyone regarding about friendship and romantic relationship.

This is the player tells him about Mai Lan's advice and learning about the player's problems about Mr. Robert's complaint. He decided to follow Mai Lan's advice and making him and the player are at good company as residents in ER. Since the player is half-asleep and decides to get home, Mike tells her that she can stay stating that she can't get home on her drunken state. With that, he let the player sleep on the couch while leaves to his room to get some sleep.

The player also having a dream of getting hooked up with Mike until he was switched into William who told her that she was beautiful. The player wakes up and knowing it was morning and she takes a glimpse of a sleeping Mike. Before she leaves, she put a blanket on Mike to make himself comfortable and leaves, undetected. She also thinks about the dream can make a reality or not.

During break time at the cafeteria, it reveals that Sofia remains cold and hostile as she gave her a cold shoulder and Bubble sees their animosity. He gave the player some advice that Sofia needs some space since she was mad at her. Sofia coldly tells Bubble to go with her which he did, leaving the player behind. She also takes a glimpse of William who came to the cafeteria to get coffee.

She looked at the tablet and she was called by Adrian to meet him at the cath room to take on a triple coronary bypass surgery. While helping Adrian from his bypass surgery, Mike was there as well but remains cold and distant towards her due to his family problems and the player tried to force him to speak about it. Mike reveals that it was his family problems and became concerned and worry to his younger sister, April Stover. As the player receives a call from Jarod to get the patient at the heliport, she tells Mike that they can talk about this later. Despite Mike's coldness, the player tells him to call her at her tablet if he wanted to speak to her which he thankfully accepts.

Arriving at the heliport, she saw William preparing for the helicopter landing and realizing that he was not fooled over the player's actions knowing she was avoiding him. The player makes an excuse about the International Women's Day as a reason of not speaking to him in ten days, much to his annoyance and angry and she never calls his nickname Will. The emergency helicopter arrives and to see the new patient Peter McDonnough who is suffering from stage 3 lymphedema on both of his legs. At the elevator, she receives another threatening message from Chuck who believes he was anonymous and to the player's horror.

Upon meeting Jarod and went to the operating room. Jarod learns about the elephantiasis which causes the lymph nodes on his legs and the player was knowledgeable about cancer and tumors. After Kwan gets the test results and his tumor sample are not cancerous and both learned about the same thing when Peter travels from another countries and the player also hinted that he had recently travelled in Botswana after looking at his passport and to Jarod's surprise and shock.

Since Camilla is absent from getting a flu, the player is excited to make a surgery with Jarod to save Peter's legs from getting more swollen. During the operation, the player learns that Jarod had taught of using the medical techniques in Africa since he tried to remove the parasite on Peter's legs which he confirms. As Olivia tells Jarod that Chuck was looking for him, the player was horrified upon hearing the surname Stanford causing her to collapse in stress as Jarod catches her in time. He tells Kwan to look after Peter.

Outside the operating room, Jarod gave her some water and despite the player's excuse, Jarod knows her problems regarding about Chuck upon mentioning his surname. Before the player could tell him, William arrives to see them only for the player to make an excuse for herself which Jarod seriously tells her to get some rest and he went back to the operating room to continue treating Peter's legs along with Kwan. She soon leaves the scene when William was around but he angrily stopped her from leaving since he was very reluctant to know of her actions for ignoring him. The player wanted to apologize for it and decided to leave.

The next day, Camilla returns after recovering from a flu much to her dismay and also answers most of her questions. During the break, she meets up with Bubble who cleans up his ambulance and asking him about Eve. Here, Bubble shows Eve's Facebook profile page to the player about her various accomplishments as an oncologist. Meanwhile, Camilla tries to call Jarod on her tablet until she was encountered by Mike who wants to give her a favor.

Therefore, she saw both William and the player were upset after she had left the break room regarding about William's engagement with Eve. As Mike wanted to comfort the player, Camilla tells him not to. She then goes to the Emergency office to see her and Andrea and Camilla reveals that she fakes her flu sickness and admitting herself for lying over getting a flu. Camilla later describes Mike about his personality.

As the player overheard at the lobby that Sofia is a culprit behind the medicinal inconsistencies until being encountered by William again. He was annoyed when the player treats him this way because of his engagement with Eve knowing how broken hearted she is. Later after the conversation with Jarod, she was pressured by Camilla since she is no longer afraid of her behavior until another patient named Rosie Wooks who is in a critical state as Bubble had brought them. At the operating room despite the animosity between her and Sofia, they reluctantly teamed up to save Rosie by taking a surgery as well as reviving her on time.

Afterwards, both parted ways and Camilla laughs at their efforts much to the player's displeasure. The player then asks her about Jarod which confirming he was still hanging out with Mary. At the Great Pretender, Camilla finally befriended the player and her horrible actions were explained to the player about "the pressure cook method" much to her disdain. When William was present at the bar, the player immediately leaves causing the latter to chase after her. The player stops when William was desperate enough to explain to her regarding about his fiancée Eve.

William finally confesses his feelings for the player while she did the same until William wanted to tell her about his fiancée, Eve. He seriously reveals that his relationship with Eve becomes chaotic and he didn't want to see him as an engaged man. The player learns that he hid it from her which she forgives him but since he was engaged, he has to take responsibility. Despite their connection, the player dismissively leaves and William became lost in thought.

In Chapter 6 despite the unlikely alliance in the surgery of Rosie Wooks, Sofia remains unwilling to trust her since their fall out. Arriving at the locker Mike was there looking at Camilla, getting dressed from her casual outfit to her resident uniform. Arriving at the ER office, Olivia pointed out on Jarod which he tells her that he and the player are going to team up for the surgery.

Despite her good impression on teaming up with Jarod, Camilla arrives and knowing that she was not with Mike at the locker after all. Jarod tells them that they're gonna do a hip replacement on a female patient named Malory Linklater who is severely injured her hips from getting fell into the dumpster and they need to be prepared for the operation. As Jarod leaves and Camilla gets her tablet, the player looked at her tablet to take research about Malory who gained a severe head injury and was currently confined at Room 14.

She looked at Camilla who is getting more focus on Jarod and became concerned about the surgery they're going to do. The player then goes to Room 14 to check upon Malory. On her way, she encounters Mike outside of Room 14. She tried to have a conversation with Mike but he remains cold. She noticed something about Mike's family problems and the reason why he remains so cold.

Upon mentioning his family issues, Mike changes the subject stating that he's gonna work to do with William while displaying his arrogance. The player knows he wants her to back him off, forcing her to talk to him about his girl problems which amuses Mike. Despite cheering him on, Mike continues to avoid the subject of his family problems and he decided to walk back at her after he's done drinking coffee and throw the paper cup into the trash. The player manages to catch him off stating because of his sister April, which shocks Mike. This is where Mike opens up about his problems for his younger sister, April who had a very difficult situation.

As the player wanted to know more about his family, Mike gave her a violent reaction and leave dismissively, letting the player to think about their conversation while going to check Malory at Room 14. Here, she managed to research about April who come across several articles in the newspaper which was dated ten years ago where she was 15 years old (She was already 25 at the present day) who suffered an injury on her left leg that also ruins her ballerina career. The player has to figure it out what leg injury that April had suffered and why she decided to abandoned her dreams of becoming a ballet dancer and it was a trauma for her.

The player realizes that tragic injury happened to April had caused Mike some repercussions regarding about his family. While being observed by Mai Lan, the player rethinks about Malory and the cause of her fractured hip when she climbs up or down the third floor of her ex-boyfriend's apartment. The player still remembers about Chuck's abusive treatment. She goes to the elevator with Mai Lan and went to her office and gave her two binders so that the player could study.

She later studies the two binders at the break room until both William and Mike arrive. When the player asked William about the hip replacements, he replies that he had never did this surgery for the first time. Since both are having a conversation, Mike became envious only for William to take friendly gesture to make a happy reply. With that, both William and Mike are cheering the player good luck on the surgery.

During the hip replacement surgery on Malory, Camilla remains hostile to the player when they were trying to please Jarod and Jarod and the player are in a good team when they are doing their best to make a successful operation despite Camilla continues to fume at the player. Back at the ER room, she meets up with Jarod and Camilla who praises her and became worried because Jarod was needed here at the hospital they had currently working on. Jarod finally arrives and he congratulated both for the successful operation.

Jarod also reveals to them both that he's going to Tanzania, the place where he worked as a doctor before being recruited at the Blue Swan Hospital and seeing Camilla was concerned about his Tanzania trip only for Jarod to reassure them both that he won't abandoned them. Because of his words, Camilla dismissively leaves while the player also leaves as well to do her assignments. Back at the apartment, Sofia was trying to cook food at the kitchen and the player visits her.

She tried her best to make a humor out of her but it didn't work especially mentioning about William with the letter W. When they went to the living room, Sofia finally speaks and stating that she bought a fire extinguisher and leave, seemingly ignores the player's humor and remains unwilling to speak with her.

The player would never forget about what happened previously and the reason of their fall outs.

The next morning, she went to Jonny's Streetfood to see John-Lee when she makes a humor conversation over donuts. John-Lee gave her a warm raisin muffin for her to eat breakfast while leaving to get to the hospital. Arriving at the hospital, she meets up with Camilla who begins her friendship with her.

After her duty, she's taking a break at the cafeteria until she glimpses of both William and Mike who came here to eat lunch especially Camilla so William decided to join the player at the group's conversation when Camilla made a question to the player about the muscle surgery. As the trio will listen, the player answers Camilla's question and to their amusement. As Camilla leaves, Mike learns that William was busy with Eve before meeting up with other women and William tells him that he had kitesurfed with Eve in three hours and they went home.

Just as William's tablet has been beeped, he seriously informs Mike to come with him at Room 39 because the patient suffers a heart attack. While leaving the player at the cafeteria, William hurriedly goes to Room 39 with Mike and this is where William became lost once again because of his feelings with the player until he became serious at him. Mike laughs at him knowing how smart he was and now asking if Eve would be happy to see him depressed and upset.

William finally decided to resolve his problems. Back at the cafeteria, the player regrets for making a white lie at William. After work hours, she visited a car dealer where she can buy a gift for Sofia an expensive car which both are having dreamed to drive this car. The player soon picks the second-hand 2003 Ford Mustang and she tells the car dealer that she will pick up this car for tomorrow.

She later talking to Mike about Sofia and her buying a second-hand car at the ER Room and she can't stand Olivia's gossips. Camilla arrives to see them, asking about William as Mike replies that William is with Eve. Sofia also arrives while she glances at the player. Suddenly, Mai Lan arrives and telling them that the medicine theft was ongoing and leave. Camilla tells them that the authorities are in the lobby as she already had talked to them.

The authorities begin to interrogate anyone until one of them is talking to Sofia as the latter had finally raising her voice after Camilla had remarked something about her involvement with the gang which led her to get arrested. The player tries to defend Sofia, stating that she has nothing to do with the medicine theft. The authorities had arrested Sofia who is now enraged and Camilla was guilty. Suddenly all of the nurses are talking about Sofia getting arrested and Mike makes a jab over the player before decided to leave with her. The player became extremely stressed causing Mike to take her out of the hospital for air.

The player became more stressed since all of the staffs from the lobby including Tiffany are talking about Sofia and she couldn't stand it because it's gonna destroy her medicine career especially she was framed from getting involved in the medicine theft. Outside, Mike tries to stop the player from attempting to fight Tiffany for Sofia as Camilla arrives. As the two leave, the player was still mad at Camilla and the only matters to her is her job career than her colleagues. At the Patient's Ward, she thanked Camilla to be on their side until she mentioned about Boyle 13, a group of gang members involving drug trafficking and the player learns that Sofia might be helping out Raquel.

Despite Camilla's animosity and Mike's support for her that Sofia's involvement on drug trafficking is not her style, the player begins her personal investigation just to clear Sofia's name from getting involved in drug trafficking. Since Sofia's arrest she meet up with Mike at the pharmacy and despite her troubled situation, she noticed Angela was not there. With that, both teaming up to get inside the storage room of the pharmacy and Mike knows about the badge numbers since he decided to help her. The player finally finds Sofia's badge number being "FF13007" and the medicines that they took are a large amount of opiates and acetaminophen.

Mike clenches his fists and he was knowledgeable about the mixing of drugs. He tells the player by cutting the dose to add the acetaminophen in order to sell it and it was less pure. As Angela comes back to the pharmacy, Mike drags her away and they continued talking about Sofia getting involved. The player soon checks on Mrs. Bell before leaving the hospital. Outside, she meets up with Bubble and stating that they never chat each other in ages.

When she questions Bubble about Sofia, he backs away until he tells her that Sofia remains at the police station and the reason why she didn't tell her about it and he also does not want to get involved in their fall outs. The player decided to take Sofia back to the apartment despite Bubble's protest and he wanted both of them to sort it out of their problems and he will be happy. Bubble hopes to see the two getting along again. The player then drives and parked to the police station to see Sofia who remains unhappy to her.

The player wanted to reconcile her friendship with her and she tells her that she can't walk in the middle of the night since she bought a car for her. Inside the car, she shows more of the car parts while driving back to the hospital to get their things. Once they arrived, Sofia thanked the player for taking a ride at the Mustang, finally reconcile their friendship. As soon as she check on the staffs at the hospital, the player went to the locker room and was bumped into Jarod and her coffee had spill on their scrubs. Jarod eventually apologizes to her.

Inside the locker room, this is where both are changing their clothes and Jarod didn't mind when the player get changed and Jarod always says regarding about his trip in Tanzania. He soon asks her if she goes to Master Onizuka's dojo which the player answered that she will go to the dojo next week since she has to look after her best friend Sofia and informs her that she had spend in prison in a few hours and Jarod knows she was innocent, showing his support side to her. He even told her that Master Onizuka is strict when he trains his students and knowing she wanted him to be a sparring partner.

Before she leaves, she tells Jarod good luck on his trip in Tanzania. Just as she goes to Sofia, she tells the player about Jarod. Both then went to the Great Pretender for a drink and they had conversation about Jarod. Sofia knows it was the beginning of something else. As they are about to order some drinks, they see both Mike and Camilla who decided to join them until William's arrival.

Despite the troubles happening, Sofia decided to order drinks since William doesn't know what just happened on his absence. Although, Camilla and the player keeps roasting at William into getting back to Eve, much to his anger stating that don't drag Eve into this. The player decided to leave the bar immediately. Once she gets out, William stops her from leaving. They soon argue because she was already talked about him being with Eve.

William finally tells her that he no longer has problems with Eve anymore. The player tried to step back at William who is closer to her, he tightens the grip on her arm so that she would listen to him. He asked the player of how she feels about him only to be questioned by her because of Eve. William reveals that he broke his engagement with Eve the day before yesterday after he had caught her cheating with another man and he seemingly likes the player because she is very special to him. He finally showed his feelings to her since they first met at the hospital and he stated that he was crazy over her.

He finally kisses the player for the first time until they continued kissing passionately. The following day in Chapter 7, she and Camilla helped Adrian doing a heart surgery on Mr. Stepovich. She still think about the first kiss from William after he showed his feelings to her when they first met in the beginning. Thereafter, she goes for a cardiac massage to make Mr. Stepovich's heart to get fully functioned to make him alive.

Adrian thanked the girls for helping him as he will finish the rest at the cath lab. As they get out of the operating room, the player states that the heart surgery is mind blowing until Camilla decided to leave since she has no time for chattering. She later encounters William who became so close to her and he follows her to the dormitory to continue their romantic sessions and their kisses became a passion. William becomes wild and crazy over the player's appearance even he took off her clothes to show how sexier she is.

As they continued their romantic passions inside the dormitory, the player became doubted for a second as she asks him if he is thinking about Eve only for William to rebuff her that Eve is already ancient history and he wanted her the most because he is crazy in love with her. The player also enjoys making jokes about their lovemaking at the dormitory which led to William's decision by organizing a romantic date at his apartment. The player seemingly approves as she finally put her resident uniform back on much to William's laughter and he was just waiting for her approval and suggesting to go there in the afternoon.

After an intense exchange with William at the dormitory, she went to the cafeteria to meet Sofia to get her food for lunch. This is where they talking about their friendship as well as how they enjoy their single life since the player had been single for a long time and now it was her opportunity to start a relationship with a man. Despite Sofia's anger, she sadly informs her about the Adrian's patient from the other day who died from cardiac arrest and Adrian has nothing to do with it. She later waved at both William and Mike and both women decided to find Bubble outside the hospital.

After meeting Bubble who cleans up his ambulance, they take a lunch inside and the player was surprised that Bubble wanted to try karate practice and to Sofia's laughter and Bubble displays his sexuality for being gay as he is interested over hot guys except for the dating apps that he tried to meet up with. Bubble also reveals that the other guy he had met in the bar was so crazy over him until he recognized the man that he had slept two years ago. They later talked about Sofia's former gang the Boyle 13 who were responsible for stealing the acetaminophen drug and how Mike helps the player to check on the registrar. Before they further speak about, Mike he came to join with them.

He happily informs them that William is having a meeting with Adrian and decided to eat dessert by joining with them. About their conversation, Mike knows that the player is a reliable person because she was dealing that medicine theft case. Mike later receives a call suddenly and leave furiously. She noted that call he had received is all about his sister April, whom he was concerned about. Hoping she would talk to him about his family once he opens up about it.

At the pharmacy, Sofia informs the player that she was not involved in any forms of drug trafficking and also receives from an anonymous caller when the authorities had interrogated her. The player decided to investigate the matter until Sofia takes a gloomy look on her because what they're gonna do is risky. As they take separate ways. she watches William was looking after the mother of her child getting dressed up. After that, William takes the player at the heliport to make a private conversation regarding about the drug trafficking and Sofia getting involved on their mess and she also reminiscing their childhood days.

As the emergency helicopter arrives, she leaves William at the heliport. After Mai Lan informs her not to get involved in the investigation and taking a night shift, she goes with Bubble at Master Onizuka's dojo despite she warns him about the karate practice. While taking practice karate and to Bubble's overconfidence, the player noticed how weak he is despite joking about how he had seen a hot guy. Master Onizuka was happy to see their jokes and he informs the player to spar with Jarod on Monday.

The next day, Sofia and the player are waiting for Angela to leave the pharmacy, Once she leaves, it was their chance to get through the storage room. As soon as Sofia gets what she needs that someone had framed her from the medicine theft, Angela returns with a coffee and donut in hand and questioning the player only to remark about her singing long enough for Sofia to go with her after crawling and hiding over the counter desk. They finally left the pharmacy and meet up with Bubble since got muscle sores following the karate practice. Once they get outside and went to Jonny's Streetfood to buy some drinks from John-Lee.

Sofia learns that she was framed from taking a bunch of medicine at the hospital and they did it when she was off-duty. However, Bubble has to leave back on his duty after Archie had informed him, wanted to tell more from the girls. Back at the hospital, they look after the patients and they reminiscing about their fall out when she caught her almost kissing with Mike at the locker room and she managed to distract Angela long enough for Sofia to get out of the counter and she was happy for her.

They decided to go to Coachella for the festival. On the way, they were talking about William until they arrive to participate at the festival as she gave William a text message. Both girls are enjoying the night when they sing and dance at the festival and the rest of the evening they eat snacks for dinner and talking about boys that Sofia wanted to hang out with.

However after giving William a text message, they saw a man gets the paper towel in a hurry and realizing there was an accident going on. Both then meet up Alice who got trapped after she explains that she helps her boyfriend Curtis to put the crates at his concert but the slabs had fall onto her and injuring her thigh. With nothing else to lose, the player takes action because she doesn't want this woman to lose more blood. Curtis reveals to them that they can't bring their girlfriends to the concert just to keep their image for the fans after he mentioned to Alice about his manager.

His manager begins to get outburst on Curtis, she needs Sofia help because she needs to focus on Alice's wound and she pushes Curtis out of the stage so that his manager would follow them to the medical tent. She uses her belt to stop the bleeding from her leg and Alice blames herself for going to Coachella with Curtis and his band for support and his manager berates her for ruining his musical career and blaming her for Curtis from getting booed by the audience.

The manager was later berated by Sofia, telling him that if he was a good manager, he needs some better understanding that everyone is okay and Curtis' girlfriend Alice was in good hands and all Curtis wanted to enjoy playing music causing the manager to grumble over his actions and the player had thanked her for it and Sofia tells her that she would kick his butt to knock his senses into him. Alice reveals to them that the manager wanted to break her relationship with Curtis and since both are loving each other deeply and they wanted to keep their relationship a secret from him.

Just as the paramedics arrive to help Alice, they thanked the player for helping her and both the player and Sofia introduced themselves coming from the Blue Swan Hospital. She tells them that she cut her leg and the paramedics were thankful for saving Alice. As the ambulance arrive, the paramedics are treating Alice's leg wound with first aid before lifting her into the stretcher. The manager remains disbelief when Curtis was happy with the crowd after the player gave him a thumbs up. Back at Blue Swan Hospital the next day following the incident, both her and Sofia are happy for their rescue efforts.

As they separate ways, she looked at the phone to check on William and thinking he was angry her because she chose to go with Sofia at Coachella. She then goes to her patient Mr. MacGuffin at Room 21 who suffers from cardiac arrhythmia. As she enter the room, William was there as they were reunited. He gave her gift which she became overjoyed how adorable he is. Mr. MacGuffin noticed how close they were and they tell them they were only acting like teenagers.

The player later tells William about their experience in Coachella where she and Sofia are trying to treat Alice's leg wound and to the worry of Curtis. Afterward, she meets up with Jarod at the ER room regarding about him being her sparring partner in the karate lessons in Master Onizuka's dojo. After meeting up with William and Mike, the player decided to go to the dojo.

But upon seeing the closeness between William and the player, Jarod had seen them and this is where the player started a complicated situation between her and Jarod. She tells William to go with Mike before they got caught each other getting close. As William leaves, she noticed Jarod was jealous to see her with William. At the dojo, both Jarod and the player are having a sparring match and he impressed to see the player is getting improved on her karate skills and he likes to become as a instructor for her to learn more. He happily winks her that he will meet her again at the hospital.

After Sofia takes the player at William's apartment, this is how both William and the player had start dating. Getting amused over his metal sculptures and realizing that he's making a special night for her. She also enjoys William's cooking and noticing he is a natural gook cook and he acts like a gentleman to clean her face. Once they reach into his room, they finally kiss, taking off their clothes and making love for the first time. The player soon wakes up and seeing William was not there.

She finally put William's T-shirt on to cover herself and went to find him. When she checks William at the kitchen, he's having a midnight snack, eating some sushi and the player also eats as well. William compliments about her wearing his shirt which is similar to a short dress. They finally discussed about their relationship involving their current jobs especially since the rules in the hospital no relationships are off limits.

William also stated that their special night is perfect and both kissed once again as he carries her back to his room. The player became disappointed whenever she thinks about Jarod and continues to stop thinking about him. She's already had with William and not Jarod and her complicated feelings with Jarod had finally begins to stir on her mind despite her relationship with William is now finally official.

In Chapter 8, both William and the player went to Mai Lan's office regarding about their relationship being official. Apparently, Mai Lan became disappointed because of the hospital rules made by Richard and she reluctantly accepts them but also warns them that the romantic relationship with fellow hospital staff would be ended up in dismissal making both of them to keep up their mind. At the break room, William continues to make out with the player but was interrupted by Mike, letting the player to tell William that they had a job to do, much to his irritation.

Therefore, she asks Mike about his sister April or his family which he coldly answers that April is fine before he finishes drinking coffee and leave. At the pharmacy, the player now learns that both Tiffany and Angela are the perpetrators for framing Sofia for the stolen drugs while listening to their conversation. Despite William's asking to find her and both seem to go somewhere, the player follows them and became angered for framing her best friend for their causes.

While avoiding both Camilla and Jarod about her behavior, she manages to follow them both and realizing that the stolen drugs were hidden at the morgue within the basement and realizing that they were behind everything. The player manages to take a camera shot with her tablet in hand and immediately hides not to get caught by both Tiffany and Angela. Learning from her karate lessons from Master Onizuka, she keeps her breath and immediately goes back to the elevator and went to the reception area. She contacted to Sofia about the frame up especially the authorities regarding about the stolen drugs.

As soon as she meets Sofia at the ER office, she was encountered by Camilla who pressures her to meet with her patient Mrs. Lewis. While pretending to go at the ward, she continued to went to the ER office and to see Mike. Mike told her that Sofia had went to her patient after she had stayed in five minutes causing the player to find her. After treating Mrs. Lewis' hand injury, she meets up with William and he decided to talk with her in private at the break room.

Here after making out, this is where the player tells William about the stolen drugs and it was perpetrated by both Tiffany and Angela, much to his surprise. He finally decided to aid the player by distracting them both before the authorities will arrive while the player has to find Sofia. At the hallway, she finally found Sofia who soon asked her of why she came here to find her. The player then drags her to the changing room and soon tells her about both Angela and Tiffany who steal the drugs, exposing them as perpetrators as well as the photo of the stolen drugs being kept hidden at the morgue and to frame her on purpose.

After learning of their actions, Sofia became infuriated at both of them for framing her up from behind and decided to confront them both while angrily swears in Spanish. The player tried to calm her down, but failed. Arriving at the ER Office, William was there as well and to see both Tiffany and Angela got arrested by the authorities and Tiffany tries to make Angela as a scapegoat while pretending to act innocent.

While Tiffany tries to escape after learning that it was the player who takes a camera shot on them with her tablet as well as the evidence they have made on the photo she showed to them, she manages to stop her from escaping by grabbing her arm due to her experience in karate and the police manages to take them in custody. Outside, the policeman wanted the player to come with them and was glad that both William and Sofia are supporting her. Sofia excitedly cheers the player to putting both Tiffany and Angela behind bars and as revenge from both of them for framing her.

As the player returns to Blue Swan Hospital, she quickly sends William a triumphant message as the latter replied to talk thing happily at his apartment tonight. She then goes to both Sofia and Bubble at his ambulance and gave her a pizza slice. This is where the player explains to them about both Angela and Tiffany who are now incarcerated from their crimes of drug trafficking and Bubble keeps joking about Sofia beating both ladies in a handicap match on the wrestling ring. While they talked about she and William's relationship, they mentioned Jarod causing the player to get disappointed by this.

Back at the ER office, both Kwan and Olivia are congratulate the player for her heroic deeds not until Sofia informs her that their investigation will continue because she wanted to know more about the customer who let both Angela and Tiffany to steal the drugs. As Sofia continues to work indefinitely while the player tries to look on her assignments at the tablet, both William and Mike came to the ER room and Mike compliments the player for her heroism. As Mike listens to their conversation, William reveals that Adrian knows about their relationship and the player reveals that Mai Lan had informed him.

Since Camilla had other things after William was asking her where she is, William decided to become the player's supervisor in her place which she gladly accepts. As she goes to see her patients within her assignment, she encounters Jarod talking to the nurse and noticing that he is no longer with Mary. Back at William's apartment, William prepares some warm canapes for dinner and the player wanted to open up about their exes and became worry to herself about her hook up with Mike from the beginning.

This is where William opens up about his date with Sofia and he treats her more friendly than a relationship. When he goes to get more warm canapes and two mojitos, the player sees the metal sculptures. William soon mentions about Eve. Not just about their arguments and their relationship didn't work it out, resulted in a break up as the player was the one who made up a fake date of another man that cause him to get jealous.

William then made a declaration of love to the player and she throws herself into his arms and they kissed. Both then stripping themselves naked and they made love at the kitchen. The next day which is Easter, she went to the ER office and overhearing both Kwan and Olivia about the kids are suffering from chocolate indigestion. She meet up with both Camilla and Jarod and he asks her if she is okay which she answers that she was fine but getting hungry.

Therefore, she meets up with William who brought a picnic basket to take lunch at MacArthur's Park which she tells him to wait so that she could get changed. She later spend time with William while eating lunch together at the park. Back on her duty, she was annoyed to see Tiffany at the reception who is now release in prison and making Angela as a scapegoat. Despite she goes to the elevator, Tiffany had saw her and gives her many threats for taking her behind bars while Bubble defends her.

The player informs him that she'll take control of the situation. Despite her bitchy attitude, Sofia arrives to confront her and berating her for framing her up with their trafficking of drugs. Tiffany does not stop there until a sick little girl with her father came to ask for her help but Tiffany keeps bitching towards both Sofia and the player that she can take care of it but was annoyed on the little girl who is begging for help. Because of Tiffany's bitchy attitude, the little girl vomits at her lab coat and both the player and Sofia laughed at her disgrace.

Mai Lan had seen the ordeal and both decided to leave the hallway while Tiffany is forced to get changed at the changing room. Mai Lan then scolds them about the incident knowing that they didn't want the hospital to make a big scandal over it. Both the player and Sofia tell her that they were doing their job. Mai Lan then gives them advice which they accept.

As she leaves, both the player and Sofia are parted ways to do their respective assignment and the player went to the operating room with Jarod to do the cataract surgery. During the cataract surgery, Jarod teaches the player in how to operate their eyes by removing the infection tissue from their retinas using a scalpel and not to take any small risks. After the operation successful, she went to the break room to get coffee until she sees Camilla who is adjusting her bra to cover her bosoms and they were joking about Jarod being a superhero after she tells her about her conversation with him.

Not just Tatiana that Camilla had meant about another woman in a photo which happens to be Jarod's ex-girlfriend and Adrian's younger sister Neema Walker who once working together in Tanzania as she stated that she is gorgeous. Camilla leaves the break room in amusement and the player watches her leave. The player then went to Mai Lan's office to see her for her job review and to encounter both Camilla and Olivia are laughing at each other and Mike who remains cold. Mai Lan then bring the documents to Richard while locking her office then afterwards she unlocks her office to get the player inside.

This is where she shows her positive reviews on her job regarding about her bar exam as well as getting involved with the authorities after she manages to caught both Angela and Tiffany for stealing drugs. Mai Lan tells her about the incident with Tiffany never to make things happen again and she noticed how protective she is. Mai Lan later reveals her secret to the player that she continued dating with her former husband, a former resident in the same hospital and she tells her of how she met him.

Because of Richard's strict rules, her former husband had defy his orders which resulted in a firing. Although they maintain their relationship in a low profile outside of the hospital. Therefore, the player mentions of how she breaks up with her former husband, Mai Lan shows her deep sadness and gestures the player to get out of her office. After the work duties, she decided to meet up with Bubble outside the hospital.

At the same time, Mike is having a heated conversation with April while trying to find his stethoscope at the dormitory regarding about their abusive father. Afterwards, he witnessed both Camilla and Olivia enter the dormitory and engaging in sexual intercourse of the same gender. Mike thinks it was a beautiful show to see two women are having sex while trying to hide from them until his missing stethoscope fall off to the ground and Camilla overhear the noise. Olivia was terrified to see Mike was there which he never gets involved on both of them. As he turn to leave, Camilla gave him his stethoscope and angrily pushed him away.

Outside of the ambulance, the player continues to look for Bubble as she knocks his ambulance door and she found him very upset. It is revealed when Bubble opens up to her about his family where he emotionally commemorates his seventeenth anniversary for the disownment of his family and he was also from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The reason of why he was well-toned because of his harsh training with his father Mr. Bergman to become a pro baseball player but that ended when he gets a skateboard accident, resulted to have double fractures on his body.

When he finally opens up his family for being gay and his interested in boys like him, he was immediately disowned by his father, forcing him to live in the harsh streets until he moved in Los Angeles, California where he meets the previous ENT, leading him to live his dream to become an ENT at the hospital. To this day, he maintains his contact with his mother Mrs. Bergman as his father remains hostile to him. The player now learns that he always making jokes to everyone to show his happiness in life.

The next day in April 22 where they celebrated Earth Day at the ER room, she and Sofia were called by both William and Camilla and went to the ward. As William are handling patients who were poisoned for eating mushrooms and getting intoxicated. The player is handling Mrs. Jonas who had eaten few mushrooms while Camilla scolded her husband Paul Jonas for letting his wife eating a poison mushroom without her knowledge and his stupid decision making. This is where his wife Mrs.

Jonas explained how she had eaten a poison mushroom when she and Paul had hiking at the Runyon Canyon. Since she didn't eat the entire mushroom, she ended up suffering stomach cramps and back pain, resulting for Paul to call an ambulance. The player did tell her that she was lucky that mushroom she had eaten that affecting her kidneys which causes her back pain and it was not serious. She also tells her that if she ate the entire mushroom knowing it was lethal, she will die.

As William finishes his patients, the player asks him to see each other at the Great Pretender which he accepts as the player leaves to get changed at the changing room. Both girls are talking about the Jonas couple while changing to their casual attires. As they meet up with William and Mike, they later talking about Bubble's sadness about his family. At the Great Pretender not until William declares his love to the player, Mike confronts them while eating their prepared tapas who soon reveals their hook up with the player right from the beginning, knowingly that William's love to the player came too late.

Despite the player's annoyance regarding about between her and Mike, William decided to leave at the bar in disappointment after learning of what happened between them. In Chapter 9 within 10 days later, John-Lee cheers the player up to make a smile for everyone while she takes chocolate muffins from him.

She soon encounters William at the entrance of Blue Swan Hospital who remains cold and detached towards her following Mike's revelation into hooking up with her in the beginning. William decided to avoid her while walking away quickly, leading the player to find and making a reason towards him.

She tried to find William at the changing room only to be found by Camilla who concerns at her well being much to her annoyance. After getting changed to her scrubs, she found William, Mike and Adrian who were discussing about the 45-year old female patient who requested to get a valve to restore her heart and they stated that she is dying if they couldn't find the right valve. The player clearly chooses William's perspective into waiting to find the right valve despite the latter's cold detachment to her and to Mike whom he called her a fellow resident.

As Mike and William leave who is about to get changed despite his attitude, Adrian wants to know from the player about William's change in demeanor but she couldn't answer his question due to the relationship issues they had and Adrian walks away. The player remains getting frustrated over both William and Sofia due to breaking their respective partnership and friendship because of her overall actions particularly from lies or hiding the entire truth. Camilla arrives to see her from behind who believes she is daydreaming only for the player to rebuff her that she is thinking of something else.

Camilla tells her that Jarod was looking for her and letting her do what she wanted with Jarod while she needs to deal with other patients, much to the player's annoyance while giving Camilla a dirty look. She soon encounters Jarod who thinks about the surgery he could do today while she describing him for being charismatic. She greets him who replies her in a nod.

It is revealed that they're gonna take a surgery towards Bobby Hanson who suffers a bike accident where he fell off his bike as the handlebar had stuck on his right thigh. Jarod also reveals that Mai Lan will be joining to help them and to the player's surprise and shock. After saving Bobby and the surgery was a success, Mai Lan compliments the player a job well done and decided to leave back to her office. Jarod also likes the player for her professionalism before walking away, leaving the player dumbfounded over his presence.

The next day, the player commutes at the subway since Sofia has driven her Mustang, she was encountered by Andrea who still wanted to know more about the player's personal life in the family. As soon as they reach to their destination, a mugger attempts to steal Andrea's handbag as Andrea manages to grip it harder causing the player to intervene and subdue the mugger. Andrea was surprised to see the player's toughness when she takes down the mugger and finally hurting his arm. The mugger doesn't want to apologize only for the player to hurt his arm further, forcing him to apologize. As soon as she releases him, he ran away.

The player finally opens up to Andrea that her father had taught her how to fight and learning Karate from him. As soon as they arrive at the Blue Swan Hospital, this is where Andrea had easily found out that the player's family are dysfunctional yet strained as her father had disappeared at the age of 18 while she had a strained relationship with her mother and her younger brother Tyler studies for medicine but he was on his mother's side. Andrea decided to befriend the player after she risks her life for saving her handbag from a mugger and thanking her for the rescue. As Andrea gets inside the hospital, the player ponders about whether her father was dead or missing when he disappeared.

During her work duties, she and Camilla are looking after the patient Mrs. Hannigan who broke her tailbone from getting slipped at their home. As Camilla leaves to deal with another patient. The player listens about Mrs. Hannigan's story about her love from her late husband Henri Hannigan who died from a heart attack. As Olivia came to help her by, she reveals that she slips herself from the peeled skin of the potatoes and fell over the ground which causes her to break her tailbone.

She also gives the player some advice of spending her more of her loved ones before it's too late. As soon as she is done, she still ponders about William and he has to listen to Mrs. Hannigan's advice. During lunch break, Sofia was complimented by the player that her skin glowed due to her cream she had bought while waiting for Bubble to arrive. When Tiffany goes around and acting more like a gallant person, Sofia angrily frowns over her presence.

Her confession to the player about her involvement in the drug trafficking causing them to have a friction and the player gets mad at her for keeping that secret because drug trafficking is a crime. When Tiffany left the scene, she finally tells the player in a low voice that she does this crime for a good cause unlike both Tiffany and Angela and she is right to mention Boyle 13 due to her connection with Raquel and Juan. She decided to drag her back inside the hospital to the changing room so that they can speak privately.

After learning of her connections with Boyle 13 and the reason of stealing the drugs for a good cause, the player remains impassive and confuse until Camilla came to see them and telling the player to come with her. Sofia tells her that she has to go on with Camilla while waiting for Bubble which the player accepts.

On the way, the player was still clouded over Sofia's confessions and William's cold demeanor to her only to be call by Camilla to get back to reality and both continues to work indefinitely.

At the Emergency Room, she met up by both William and Mike and asking about the patient in the heart surgery. William complains about Mike who convinces the patient to accept the porcine heart tissue valve but both eventually succeeds of taking the heart surgery of their patient. As soon as both left, Camilla gave the player a task from her tablet to meet up with the patient named Matthew who nearly cuts off his hand due to his suffering from Cotard's syndrome after being admitted in the psychiatric hospital. Andrea also arrives to see her while Camilla still teases the player.

Andrea angrily tells Camilla about the player's heroic actions in how she subdued the mugger who attempts to steal her handbag, much to her shock and surprise. Later, both arrived at the lobby and Camilla compliments the player's bravery and heroism until Sofia wants to see her, letting them go for their rounds. Here, Sofia nudges at the player to see Tiffany goes back to the morgue by getting down to the elevator and telling Pablo to cover up her modus. Both eventually followed her. At the morgue, both caught Tiffany for carrying the boxes as Sofia attempted to strike on Tiffany only for the player to break the two of them up.

Tiffany berates on both of them for causing the trouble and she reveals that the boxes are for donations before fleeing back to the morgue. After their work duties, the player takes Sofia to her parent's house which is the Flores Residence while she goes to William to clear up their misunderstandings. When William opens the door seriously, he saw the player was here. This is where the player finally admits of her lies to William regarding about the hook up with Mike and that kiss he gave her was just a moment of weakness and was embarrassed because of this.

It is also the main reason why she didn't tell Sofia about this issue since she had caught them both. William was happy and relieved that the player does not cheating with him for Mike after all and they reconcile their relationship. The following day after she and William are spending the night together, Sofia is already finished her shift as a nurse and both are spoken about her reconciliation with William but not to speak about her illicit activities since she had secretly kept it to many people including her co-workers at the hospital.

At the Emergency Room, William remains into thinking about the player only to be surprised by Adrian who asks him about what he is thinking. William jokingly says about his patient as Adrian sees that he likes the player so much. He also tells William to move on with the past regarding about both Mike and the player's kisses on their first day before leaving for an heart operation. As William goes to the dormitory where he walks through the hallways, he's trying to imagine about the intimates with the player even on his birthday. Back at the locker room, Sofia was glad that the player reconciles with William and was supported to her.

When Camilla arrives to hear their conversation, she questions her why she is interested in their conversation which Camilla wanted to say to the player about William. It is revealed during that time when the player and Mike almost had sex for the first time, William accidentally kiss Camilla in a drunken state causing the player to get angry since he never told her about this ordeal he had made. She decided to leave the changing room for air after Sofia warns her not to act so reckless. The next day, they're gonna operate Bobby Hanson who horribly suffers an injured leg and his parents were watch him in the OR. Jarod reveals that the necrotic tissue begins to attack it's muscles.

Therefore, while operating Bobby, the player was mad at his parents for not saying the truth of his current condition and Bobby is revealed to suffer meningitis as a baby. Their son needs to learn the truth from them. Back at the operating room, Camilla angrily lashes the player for not participating in the operation to find the whole truth as well as her connection with Jarod which angers Jarod for her actions and lecturing her to get working.

Jarod realizes it reaches Stage 3, forcing them to amputated Bobby's leg. The player tells him that she had never done this for the first time. With that, the player helps Jarod amputated the kid's leg using a saw. Because of the truth of lacking love to their children, she was angry and reminded her about the late Jimmy. Jarod came to stop her and he shares with her the same way in his experiences in Africa were many children had amputated their limbs due to the lack of love between their families and they can be happy afterwards.

The player knows it is the same as Bobby's parents, making Jarod smile. The player hurriedly goes to the waiting room to see Bobby's parents and telling them about the current results. Following the incident, the player decided to spend Mother's Day with Bubble who is revealed to have no longer contact with his mother Mrs. Bergman due to his father's dislike of him following his disbandment to the family. At the car, they both talk about romantic relationships especially hanging out with either a man or a woman during dates as guys in Bubble's case.

They later spend together at their apartment and they talk about William, the Halloween Party and Jarod. The next morning, she wakes Bubble up due to them are running late, they immediately drive the car to the hospital. As she is about to get changed, she encounters Mike who is dressing up to his scrubs. It is revealed due to his rudeness to the player when she questions him, Mike has family problems because of their father Mr.

Stover who physically abuses his younger sister April and the reason why he was concerned and have no sleep. While walking to their new patients, he tells her about his abusive father who wanted to ask forgiveness to his children although he actually read his mind that he is not sincere to them. As soon as Mike check on his patients, the player tells him that she is on his back if he needs her help which he nod but not looking at her. She soon checked on Mr.

Sellers an elderly patient and Camilla who suffers from hypertension or high blood pressure and has a hearing problem. He thanked the player for giving medications as the player give him an advice not to forget his medications just to see Rosie. After that, Camilla scolds her, claiming that Mr. Sellers is her patient. Her actions leads to have a fall out with the player and trying to put her in her place as well as mentioning about Jarod.

The player retaliated to put her back in her place because her conversation with her is getting nowhere. Their argument stops when Camilla decided to spend picnic in the afternoon with her. However, the player noticed her sexuality as a bisexual when Camilla is hitting on her and why she keeps pressuring her and being so jealous to her when Jarod is taking her attention during the surgery.

At the Westside Park, this is where both William and the player are having a romantic picnic and both still imagined themselves getting covered with a picnic sheet, naked. William also reveals about his Halloween Party experience due to Adrian giving many drinks to him, resulted to get drunk and why he accidentally kissed Camilla and making pranks with the other women. Also, their romantic picnic is where William celebrates his 28th birthday and picking the player as his birthday gift. He soon takes her at the shower room within the hospital were both are having sex together as part of his birthday gift.

They later eat desserts at the break room where William feeds her with a pie slice on the half of her mouth. She soon given a threatening SMS message and knowingly it was Chuck's doing. She finally tells William about the threatening messages and William tries to think if it's either Jarod or Mike but no. The player still assumes her ex-boyfriend was a mysterious stalker who give these threatening messages.

They later talked and joked about the messages especially one of the Teletubbies, Laa-Laa who was mentioned being involved in the make love sessions. While doing these conversations, the two are still kissing and almost continue to do their romantic sessions especially in William when he gives her one last kiss as they arrive at the hospital lobby to do their current job to deal with their patients. During their conversation, the player also responded his threatening message to the sender with the same message. After they parted ways romantically, the player goes to Sofia who treats a 19-year old surfer who injures his chest and she saw bruises all over it.

He explains about the surf move he tried to the professional surfer as he caused an accident by a board struck on his chest, resulted in him getting hospitalized here and he was lucky enough to be here. However, he shows his interest to Sofia which she makes a tease and joke at him because of her present age. Sofia also reveals that her parents are having an application to get a green card and moved to the United States and the reason of the issue because her father was concerned that they will be deported and it was a great news for her as well as her little sister got kicked out of the apartment for not paying the rent.

The player also tells her that she and Bubble had spend their mother's day at their apartment, making Sofia wanted him to stay together for fun. While ignoring Camilla's rudeness, the player also tells Sofia about the threatening messages again while assuming that someone had texted her so horribly but not to know it was really Chuck. As Sofia lets her ride the Mustang due to her current work at the hospital, the player walks to Master Onizuka's dojo who is finally done his lessons to his students.

He soon gives a wise advice to the player before leaving. Not until she found Jarod who heavily practices karate by beating a training dummy and the player thinks he lost a patient during operation. This reveals Jarod's motives and why he was stressing out, he decided to go to Tanzania to set up a clinic (referring to his main headquarters for his non-organization group, Doctors for All on his main story route), causing the player to become more concern of him. Jarod also reveals to the player that it's going to take a year to finish the construction at Tanzania and he decided to leave the hospital permanently.